DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-13 and 15-58 are pending. Claims 1, 28, and 37 have been amended in this communication filed 06/04/07 entered as Non-Final Rejection.
2. The claim objections for claims 1 and 28 have been overcome by Applicants' amendment to the claims and are hereby withdrawn.
3. The 35 USC 112, first paragraph rejection still remains as set forth here below.
4. The 35 USC 112, second paragraph rejection for claims 1, 28, and 37 in the Office Action of 3/05/07 have been overcome by Applicants' amendment and are hereby withdrawn. However, there are still remaining 35 USC 112, second paragraph issues as set forth here below.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 1 recites "a respective slot ...". This claim limitation would be better recited as "a slot ...".
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 1, 28, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The amendment to claims 1, 28, and 37 reciting "... embedding document contents, ...." is not found in Applicants' Specification. The places in the Specification where "embedding" is found is as follows: on page 4, line 9 which recites "standards such as object linking and embedding (OLE) Automation or common"; page 7, line 25 recites "(embedded or linked) to the File Object hook 34 in a manner similar to adding"; and page 11, lines 12 and 13 recite "22 provides a location in which one or more user scripts are embedded within the Workfolder 10. Each script ...". None of these pages and line numbers mention about the workfolder containing a contents node for storing primary data including "embedding document contents", said contents node containing one or more placeholders".

Art Unit: 3694

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 1, 28, 30, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites "which said documents will or will not exist at the time of workfolder creation" which appears to contradict "embedding document contents" in the next claim limitation. This is considered to be an inconsistency in claim language. The documents need to exist otherwise it is unclear how the embedding of the document contents can take place.

Art Unit: 3694

Claims 28 and 37 have a similar problem with the claim limitations.

Claim 30 recites, "said workfolder, ... its intended contents". The usage of the term "intended" is not considered a positive claim recitation. "Intended" is defined as "expected to be such in the future". A positive and predictable recitation would be "said workfolder, ... having a name indicating its contents".

Claims 2-13, 15-27, 29-36, and 38-58 are also rejected because they depend from a rejected base claim.

Conclusion

10. The application should be in condition for allowance when these issues are overcome and if there are no other remaining issues or prior art found to reject the claims.
